

“What Matters for Patients” - at Rosewell House

‘Newspaper Quality Improvement’ Jill Stott, Occupational therapist

Helps keep you in touch with what's going on in the outside world. Good to have things of interest.”

“It's something to read. I like to read about local news. I'd be disappointed if I didn't get it.”

“Good to get the timing of various fixtures like the football. Seeing what games are on where and when. And to know what will be on the TV”

“Helps keep you in touch with what's going on. I feel I'm more in contact with what's going on

“I enjoy the national and local news and it helps pass time.”

“You can feel isolated in here. So it helps to hear the news.”

“It's like visiting everything that you would do in your living-room.”

Rosewell House

“Great to get the local news.”

“At my age.... this is my excitement. This is the only thing that keeps me going and alive. Reading the papers and magazines lets me know what's going on outside. With not getting out it helps take my mind off my troubles.”

